

Department of English:

English literature is hundreds year old and continues to be one of the most popular course of study in higher education. The department is started in the year 2005-06. The department fulfills required quota every year. The department organizes extracurricular activities. It has been playing a significant role in educating and empowering the students. The department has good rapport with alumni. The faculty takes lots of efforts for developing basic communication skills.

Objectives:

- To develop intellectual, personal and professional abilities.
- To make the students able to acquire basic language skills in order to communicate confidently.
- To inculcate linguistic competency necessarily required in various life situations.
- To develop positive attitudes towards learning English.

Activities:

In order to inspire the students' interest in English learning and improve their ability, the faculty organizes following activities:

- Organize guest lectures, seminars, workshops.
- Wallpaper publication.
- Arrange study tours.
- Visit to book exhibitions.
- Poetry reciting and composing competitions, essay writing competitions.
- Reading activities in classroom.
- PPT presentation of seminars.